

ISEE Capacity Building and Education Committee

- We conduct workshops and short courses providing information, skills, and tactics to help members develop, conduct, write and publish their research
- We host lectures and teaching videos including advanced topics and methods in the field of epidemiology on ISEE's website
- We promote networking of junior, mid-career, senior researchers, to facilitate North-South, South-South, North-North collaborations
- All members of the committee can be found listed on the ISEE website
