

- Our mission includes promoting scientific research, training and policy on environmental health in Europe.
- All current members of ISEE based in Europe are automatically members of the ISEE Europe Chapter. We encourage to expand active participation among underrepresented minorities.
- Highlights include the fourth European Young and Early Career Conference, a webinar Series on Climate Change and Health and a joint ISEE/ERS/HEI workshop on air pollution and health in Southeast Europe.
- Future plans include ongoing involvement in EU policy issues and further expand our work in Eastern Europe.
